West Suburban Community Pantry (WSCP) has been rooted in our community since 1992. We provide emergency food services to people in DuPage County, Bolingbrook, and Romeoville through our food pantry and hunger-relief programs. We also connect families with vital resources so they can pursue a brighter future. Every day, we are moving closer to our goal of a community without hunger.

HOW TO KNOW IF YOU'RE ELIGIBLE

The law requires us to verify that everyone we serve meets federal income guidelines for emergency food assistance. This means your monthly income can't exceed the total in the table at the right next to your household size.

| Household Size*  | 1       | 2       | 3       | 4       | 5       | 6       | 7       | 8       |
|------------------|---------|---------|---------|---------|---------|---------|---------|---------|
| Monthly Income | $1,986 | $2,686 | $3,386 | $4,086 | $4,786 | $5,486 | $6,186 | $6,886 |

*For households above 8 in size, please see wscpantry.org for the full income guidelines.

**These are the requirements for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2022.
